FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Double Board-Certified Surgeon to Provide Comprehensive Care for Head, Neck and Face in Soldotna

Monthly Clinics with Dr. Christina Magill Start October 9 at New Soldotna Office

Soldotna, Alaska – Christina Magill, MD is now serving patients of all ages in the Kenai/Soldotna area at the new Alyeska Center for Facial Plastic Surgery and ENT office located in the Katmai Oncology Clinic at 247 North Fireweed St., Suite B in Soldotna. Dr. Magill will be available to see patients monthly, and appointments are now being accepted for the first clinic, which will be held Friday, October 9. A limited number of appointments are available, and interested patients are encouraged to schedule early by calling 907.561.1421.

Dr. Magill provides specialist care for all areas of the head, neck and face, utilizing the most advanced, state-of-the-art treatments. She offers comprehensive ear, nose and throat evaluation and treatment in addition to head and neck surgery. She also performs nose, ear, eyelid and sinus procedures. Dr. Magill is highly experienced in facial surgery, including skin cancer removal and treatment, facial cosmetic and reconstructive surgery, and non-surgical facial rejuvenation.

Dr. Magill is a double board-certified surgeon in otolaryngology (ear, nose and throat), head and neck surgery, and facial plastic, cosmetic and reconstructive surgery. She attained her medical degree from the University of Washington, and completed her surgical subspecialty residency at Washington University in St. Louis. She has completed fellowships in regenerative medicine and microsurgery, as well as facial plastic and reconstructive surgery. Dr. Magill has published numerous invited articles and chapters, and serves as clinical faculty for the University of Washington School of Medicine. She is also the director of the Providence Cleft Clinic and serves on the Fairbanks Cleft Team.

Dr. Magill, who knew she wanted to be a doctor since the age of 6, grew up in Alaska, living here from 4th grade through high school. She also knew she wanted to return to her home state, which she did in 2012 when she joined Alyeska Center for Facial Plastic Surgery and ENT. She resides in Anchorage with her husband and two children.
