

Part Two - Learson

You only get to die one time
Let's make it a good one
Let's think up all the ways that we can kill each other
And then we'll pick a good one

And if you're having trouble thinking of ideas
We'll help you figure out one
We're here to help you out you owe it to the world
To get out of this cage and find another good one

Let's think up all the ways that we can die
And then we'll pick a good one
Let's find a couple friend that's getting sick of life
And then we'll kill each other

And if you're having trouble doing yourself in
Well we'll start the execution
We're here to help you out you owe it to the world
To get out of this cage and find another good one

How do we ever pretend?
How do we get to the end?

I built a house of straw outside a volcano
I jumped off a mountain with a parachute of stone
I found an elephant and I acted like a mouse
I found a hurricane and acted like a house

How do we ever pretend?
How do we get to the end?

I built a house of straw outside a volcano
I jumped off a mountain with a parachute of stone
I found an elephant and I acted like a mouse
I found a hurricane and acted like a house

How do we ever pretend?
How do we get to the end?