

Lollipops and Chapstick - Zarick

Woah oh dear, it's happening again
Close you eyes, slowly count to ten
No no dear, we can't pretend we're friends
Oh oh dear, 'cause I need you in my bed

Woah oh dear, it's happening again
Close your eyes 'cause this ought to be a sin
Come close, it's thundering again
You and me dear, the world will always end

Run outside when the coast is near undress me with your ocean eyes
Come inside when the coast is clear undress me with your gringa eyes

It's so so clear, the chroma in your eyes
I study your lips, learn the rhythm of your thighs
I want you so slowly, your body to explore Lollipops and chapstick on a train to Barcelona

Run outside when the coast is near
undress me with your ocean eyes
Come inside when the coast is clear
undress me with your gringa eyes
