A. Every person engaging in the business of soliciting or canvassing shall pay a license fee of one hundred fifty dollars per year or ten dollars per day.

B. None of the license fees provided for by this section shall be so applied as to occasion an undue burden upon interstate commerce. In any case where a license fee is believed by a licensee or applicant for license to place an undue burden upon such commerce, he may apply to the city attorney for an adjustment of the fee so that it shall not be discriminatory, unreasonable or unfair as to such commerce. Such application may be made before, at, or within three months after payment of the prescribed license fee. The applicant shall, by affidavit and supporting testimony, show his method of business and the gross volume or estimated gross volume of business and such other information as the city attorney may deem necessary in order to determine the extent, if any, of such undue burden on such commerce. The city attorney shall then conduct an investigation, comparing applicant’s business with other businesses of like nature and shall make findings of fact from which he shall determine whether the fee fixed by this section is unfair, unreasonable or discriminatory as to applicant’s business and shall fix as the license fee for the applicant, an amount that is fair, reasonable and nondiscriminatory, or, if the fee has already been paid, shall order a refund of the amount over and above the fee so fixed. In fixing the fee to be charged, the city attorney shall have the power to base the fee upon a percentage of gross sales, or any other method which will assure that the fee assessed shall be uniform with that assessed on businesses of like nature so long as the amount assessed does not exceed the fees as prescribed by subsection A of this section. Should the city attorney determine the gross sales measure of the fee to be the fair basis, he may require the applicant to submit, either at the time of termination of applicant’s business in the city, or at the end of each three-month period, a sworn statement of the gross sales and pay the amount of fee therefor, provided that no additional fee during any one fiscal year shall be required after the licensee shall have paid an amount equal to the annual license as prescribed herein.

C. Blanket License.
