

True Worship

Scripture: Romans 12:1,2

Sunday, February 28, 2016

REDEEMER
FELLOWSHIP

Overview

Worship is a popular topic of discussion. We all are worshippers. In fact, worship is at the center of all human behavior. We worship and lift up what we love and what brings us happiness. The key question is—is our worship true? Is it God-centered?

Corraborating Texts

Romans 1-11; Psalm 96:7-9; Hebrews 10:12; 2 Corinthians 3:18

Discussion Questions

1. What is worship? How do people throughout our culture demonstrate their worship?
2. What does it mean to worship God specifically? How do we worship God?
3. How does true worship grow out of our understanding of God's mercies? [see Romans 1-11]
4. What is a spiritual sacrifice? How is it that we "offer our body a living sacrifice to God?" How do we worship with our bodies?
5. What is worldliness? How is worldliness an "obstacle to our true worship? Can you think of examples?
6. What does it mean to be transformed (from what are we transformed into to what)? How do you obey Paul's command to be transformed?
7. How does the Word of God transform us? [see Ps 119]
8. What things should we consider adding or removing from our lives to grow our "true worship?" How do we encourage one another to worship truly?