

The Unspeakable Advantage of Wisdom

Scripture: Proverbs 3:21-26

Series: The Way of Wisdom

Sunday, August 14, 2016

Overview

Wisdom seeks to guide. Godly wisdom guides us closer to God. When we lose sight of this, we tend to lose confidence. We let the little things of life explode into major trials. It's following Christ in faith that build our confidence. We need to be reminded that godly wisdom leads to holy confidence.

Corroborating Texts

Matthew 13:24-30, 2 Timothy 3, Psalm 119:105, Hebrews 12:12-17, 2 Corinthians 12:9, Philippians 12:9

Discussion Questions

1. What are the things you tend to lose sight of? How does wisdom help?
2. How does godly wisdom help believers to walk without stumbling (v. 23)? [Protection]
3. How does godly wisdom help believers rest without fear (v. 24)? [Communion]
4. How does godly wisdom help believers handle terror without despair (v. 25)? [Perseverance]
5. Where does our confidence come from? [From Christ, though faith, as we repent and believe].
6. What allows us to rest confidently in Christ? [His divinity, humanity, through His faithfulness, because of His power, based on His work, through His love, and by His authority].
7. What areas of your life might you not be trusting in Christ and acting in accordance with the confidence?