Overview

We all experience dark days. We have a tendency to wait for the other shoe to drop; the next bad thing to happen. The burial of Jesus teaches us patient hope in the midst of dark days.

Corraborating Texts

Mark 15:44, Romans 8:28, Romans 8:38–39, 1 John 1:9, Colossians 1:13–14,
1 Corinthians 10:13

Discussion Questions

1. In the midst of your “dark” days, do you tend to be more pessimistic or optimistic? Why? How might this manifest itself?
2. Can you see God at work during your dark days? Why or why not?
3. What is typically your mindset during these times? What should it be?
4. In what truths can we find comfort during these days? How can we ensure that we go to these truths straight away?
5. What might “patient waiting” look like for you currently?
