

Kennebec Land Trust Cobbossee Stream Conservation Area

KLT Conservation Easement
Granted by John Jannace in 1997
Conservation Area Owned by the City of Gardiner
KLT Steward: Ian Burnes

Scale: 1: 17000

The approximately fourteen acre Cobbossee Stream Conservation Area is adjacent to Harrison Avenue in Gardiner, Maine. This conservation area has significant wildlife, scenic, and historic value and is open to the community for non-motorized, outdoor recreation. Many remnants of 19th century mills and dams are visible from this site and the property also provides a wonderful location to view the annual spring alewife run.

For more information about the Kennebec Land Trust: KLT, 331 Main Street, Winthrop, Maine 04364; 207- 377-2848; info@tklt.org; www.tklt.org