

BEING MORTAL

A LISTENING TOGETHER CONVERSATION

Saturday, May 20th - 9 a.m. to 12 noon

This conversation will involve an interactive panel of 6 local professionals who will share stories of their experiences in dealing with “death and dying”. It will provide a learning opportunity as to how to best cope, address and prepare for “end of life issues” that impact persons of all ages. These professionals will also be available to respond to questions. The conversation will take place at Saddlerock EPC and is open to the public.
