OUR CORPORATE SERVICES

Team Building

Making a meaningful difference means creating tailored solutions that complement existing initiatives. Wine Construct work with various organisations to create and facilitate dynamic and educational team building programs.

From informal wine appreciation groups to more structured team challenge workshops, our unique and dynamic motivational sessions are designed according to your staff's desired learning outcomes.

Working with key personnel we are able to provide compelling content to help develop corporate culture, facilitate successful team building and enhance your employee engagement program.

Corporate Stock

Wine Construct has the expertise to design and provide a customised internal wine stock that suits your various organisation needs.

Client Events

It is paramount that your events build closer relationship with your clients by being not only engaging and memorable, but by being executed on a knowledgeable & professional level.

We provide the best wines, wine knowledge and speciality service at your events, and to your clients. With a personalised approach we will oversee and execute all aspects of your wine offering.

From more intimate private functions with expert wine commentary, to larger scale corporate and industry affairs, delivering a professional, modern and dynamic slant is our passion and speciality.

Working with various sectors we help construct any number of event components including wine & food pairing, venue and stock provision, beverage project management, to staff & full service management.

HOW IT WORKS

Wine Construct is operated with simplified & transparent processes. It is imperative that the client be allowed a direct & close working relationship with the head consultant Jacquie, ensuring one to one personalised service.

Every project, no matter the size, is developed in a clear 4-stage process with reviews and refinements occurring at required stages throughout.

The ultimate aim is to tailor the approach and services to your particular needs, with the end goal of ensuring that your expectations and objectives are met, and the initial vision is fully realised.

SO WHAT CAN WE DO FOR YOU?

Well that depends on you!

As an exclusive boutique consultancy, Wine Construct is able to tailor services to each specific client's varying needs, as the ultimate insight is that all brands & businesses are, and should be, individual.
