

MEET ME I love to craft, create, kern, click, and print. I am also known to enjoy paint, pencils, people, cake, cameras, and clothes. If you give me lemons, I'll probably bake a tart. I have a strong passion for design, and a desire to learn.

EDUCATED

Stevenson University | May 2013
Visual Communication Design
Bachelor of Science in Graphic Design
Final GPA: 3.6 - Cum Laude

EXPERIENCED

Alorica, Inc . Irvine, CA
Senior Graphic Designer | Sept 2015–Present

As the key designer for Alorica’s marketing team, I help conceptualize and execute design solutions for all internal and external marketing strategies. Along with the Creative Director, I hold the lead on projects from business card redesign, employee intranet interface, event design, advertising and interior brand graphics. I work with our international graphic designers on many of these projects, one of whom is my direct report, helping manage our work flow while supervising their work.

Main St. Design . Bel Air, MD
Graphic Designer | Sept 2012–Sept 2015

Working along side the Art Director, I created support material as well as original designs for clients on both print and web platforms. Also assisted with monthly SEO for clients and social media campaigns. After several months of working directly with clients I was selected to substitute for the Art Director for two months while she was on leave.

Artist-in-Residence Workshop . Stevenson, MD
Stevenson University | February 2013

Participated in a three-day workshop with the celebrated designer and teacher Gail Anderson. With fellow students, I learned about her process and design journey. Using scans of woodblock type from letterpress posters as well as the blocks themselves we created new designs for Stevenson University’s Relay For Life event.

Chuck E Cheese’s . Bel Air, MD
Birthday Coordinator | May 2007–April 2013

Organized weekly parties whilst managing my fellow magic makers. Training new employees on hospitality, customer service, communication and dancing skills. Yes, I can dance.

Designed t-shirts and business cards for the Stevenson Way project for Stevenson University. The purpose of this project was to find ways to accentuate Stevenson’s core values; integrity, excellence, learning, and community. The shirts designed were produced and given out during a presentation to Stevenson’s executive team.

Created poster/mailer for the Gail Anderson 2013 Artist-in-Residence lecture and workshop held at Stevenson University. This poster detailed Gail’s visit to Stevenson and included important information related to the event.

Art Department Award for Excellence | May 2013
This award is presented annually to one Stevenson University artist who exhibits exceptional design talent, creative problem-solving technique, effective communication skill, and outstanding overall academic accomplishment, as evident in his/her portfolio & GPA.
