PERFORMING ARTS SCHOOL OF CENTRAL PENNSYLVANIA

MAKING A DIFFERENCE!

The Performing Arts School of Central Pennsylvania, a 501(c)3 non-profit organization, is home to the renowned classical ballet school, Ballet Theatre of State College (performing company), and the Central Pennsylvania Youth Orchestra. We are proud to continue to fill a need in central Pennsylvania for high-quality ballet and orchestral instruction and performances. As an organization, we are committed to encourage more people to participate in the arts, nurture each student's potential for success and inspire them to enjoy the arts for life.

Ballet and Music are costly art forms. Ticket revenue and tuition cover only a portion of our annual operating costs. By becoming a Friend of PASC, your tax-deductible donations go directly into our artistic and educational programs, including scholarships, outreach, and performance costs, enabling us to continue the high-quality teaching and performances that our community has come to expect.

Thank you for supporting the students at PASC and the art forms that you love.

Your contributions do make a difference!
