

Angel Tree Project 2017

The Season of Christmas is rapidly approaching. The Angel Tree Project will officially begin November 5th. For those of you who are not familiar with this project. It is a way to provide gifts to many in need.

Gifts will go to: Interfaith seniors and assigned families, PACN (Pregnancy Assistant Center North), Birthright, St. Francis of Assisi School Houston, St. Vincent de Paul, Fransalian orphanage in India, and Casa Juan Diego (Houston)

We will be putting our Angels together at the Ministry House beginning at 12:30pm on the 5th of November. If you have any interest in helping out please stop by.

The Angels will be placed on the trees the weekend of Nov. 18th/19th and the weekend of Nov. 25th/26th.

We will be collecting and sorting the gifts after each Mass beginning the weekend of Nov. 25th.

All gifts need to be returned by Sunday Dec. 3rd.

The Gifts will be delivered Dec. 4th.

You may deliver gift to the front office Monday-Friday. Please do not take gifts to the Rectory or leave overnight!

If you cannot find a gift, return the tag early. We may be able to locate it in the Houston area.

Sadly, each year some tags are taken (with the best of intentions) but the items are not returned! Therefore, our plea is that if you will be away or do not have time to shop please do not take a tag.

On behalf of the families you are helping, God bless you and your family
