INNOVEST PORTFOLIO SOLUTIONS WELCOMES KATHERINE SAUER AS VICE PRESIDENT

DENVER – November 16, 2017 – Innovest Portfolio Solutions (“Innovest”), an independent provider of investment-related consulting services, is pleased to announce that Katherine Sauer recently joined the firm as a vice president.

“We are very excited to have Katherine with us. Her impressive skills and experience adds a new facet to our team and we are very happy she is here,” said Wendy Dominguez, president of Innovest Portfolio Solutions. Sauer added, “I am thrilled to be a part of the Innovest team and I look forward to starting this new chapter of my career.”

Katherine Sauer Biography

Katherine is a vice president at Innovest and is a member of Innovest’s Retirement Plan Practice Group, a specialized team that identifies best practices and implements process improvements to maximize efficiencies for our retirement plan clients. Katherine has decades of experience in higher education and will be responsible for educational outreach, writing industry white papers and speaking locally on retirement plan best practices. Prior to joining Innovest, she was the director of financial wellness, education, and research at the University of Colorado System Administration Office where she was responsible for managing the consolidation of the university’s $3 billion retirement plans. She has also held faculty positions at Metropolitan State University of Denver and University of Southern Indiana.

Katherine earned her doctorate in economics in 2006 from the University of Colorado at Boulder.
