Policies

- We have a strict no cell phone and no tablet policy. (includes other electronic devices: iPods, game systems, laptops, etc.) We prefer that they leave them at home, but if it is necessary to bring them (example: they are traveling to camp via plane or train), they must be handed in to the director upon arrival, and will be returned when the campers leave the farm. Phone calls to campers are permitted on birthdays and for true emergencies.
- Full payment of camp must be made before your child arrives at camp. No exceptions.
- New Meadow is a small, family- run camp and is not equipped to support children with special needs – physical or emotional. Please visit the FAQ page at for questions about diet and medication issues.
- New Meadow Farm is a drug free, smoke free, and alcohol-free camp.
- The camp reserves the right to dismiss any camper whose presence and/or behavior, in the judgment of the director, is detrimental to the camp, your child, or other children in attendance. This includes misconduct and/or willful endangerment to herself or others.
- Tuition is neither refundable nor prorated for campers who arrive after their session begins or leave before it ends.
- No PETS of any kind are allowed at camp at any time, especially during arrivals/departures.
- Packages cannot contain FOOD. If you send a package, please make it small in size and limit it to one package per session.
- Transportation between camp and the airport or train station can be arranged for a fee
- Roommate Requests. See back of this page.

- If a cell phone is found, it will be confiscated and there will be a $300 charge to get it back at the end of camp. Please help us make camp a wonderful experience, cell phones are a negative distraction.
