CREATIVE EXPRESSIONS ARTISTS TO BE FEATURED IN “PERSPECTIVES” ART SHOW AT THE FULTON-MONTGOMERY REGIONAL CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Gloversville, NY – Twenty three artists from Lexington’s Creative Expressions program, including Joy Pendlebury who was recently honored by The Arc Otsego for her painting “Diva” which was chosen as the banner artwork for their annual VOICE art exhibit, will present the third annual “Perspectives” art show in the Rotunda of the Fulton-Montgomery Regional Chamber of Commerce, located at 2 N. Main Street, Gloversville, from November 3 through November 30, 2014. The Rotunda Gallery will be open Monday – Friday, 8:00am-5:00pm and all are welcome to visit the exhibit. There will be a Meet the Artists reception on Wednesday, November 5 from 4:00pm-6:00pm which is free and open to the public. There will be artwork and greeting cards for sale and light refreshments will be served.

Lexington’s Creative Expressions program promotes independence and choice through outcome based programs and involvement in the community. Goals focus on social activity and physical skills plus health and wellness awareness. Creative Expressions artists have participated in many local exhibitions, have won several awards and have sold $5,815.00 in artwork, the proceeds of which have gone to the Paul Nigra Center for the Creative Arts and other local charities.
