AUTISM RESOURCE FAMILY FUN DAY!

Saturday, April 27 | Transitions, 2736 NY-30, Mayfield, NY 12117 | 1:00—4:00 p.m. | FREE!

Join us for a fun day honoring Autism Awareness Month! Presented for and by people with autism. Perfect for people of all ages on the spectrum and their friends and family! Pre-register by visiting https://bit.ly/2UuUkCz or contacting Maria Nestle at 518-661-9932 or nestlem@thearclexington.org.

CLASSES, EVENTS AND TRAININGS

- Acoustic Café with Flame Acoustic Duo Michelle King and Andrew Carpenter
- Book Reading and Signing with Author Joe Barry
- Employment Discussion: Everything You Need to Know about Your Kid Being Employed
- Essential Oils with Heather Mattioni
- Paint and Sip with Francis and Melanie
- PEERS® Mini Session for Young Adults
- Sensory Dance and Exercise
- Stress Relief Training for Parents
- Technology Apps for Your Child

OTHER RESOURCES

- Applications available for the Transitions Momentum and Imagine programs
- Assistive communication resources
- Autism Awareness ID cards
- Information Booths: Transitions, Nigra Arts Center, Flame, Parent to Parent and Catholic Charities

ACTIVITIES THROUGHOUT THE DAY

- Artists with Autism Exhibition
- Bouncy house*
- Music with Gary*
- Raffles
- Sensory activities for children
- Tours of the Nigra Arts Center
- Tours of Transitions
- AND MORE!

* Generously sponsored by the Gloversville-Johnstown Kiwanis