WHO IS Q?

I think by now most of us have resigned ourselves to the conclusion that, ultimately, it does not matter who Q actually is.

While skeptical minds are quite uncomfortable with the whole perpetual anonymity thing, it appears, based on the data encoded in the astrology chart for the moment of Q's manifestation, the identity of Q is meant to remain unknown.

The mission Q came to initiate, participate in, and oversee fulfillment of does not require personal identification. That said, though the specific "self" of the individual hands attached to the body typing on the message board is not a perceivable aspect of Q, the astrology chart of Q shows several significant, strong and defining features that Q seems to embody and represent.

We don't know specifically "who" Q is, but the astrology tells us everything we need to know about the entity that is Q.

NEPTUNE ASCENDING

Q's astrology chart is based on the date and time of the first post (October 28, 2017 at 3:44 pm Eastern daylight time at the default location of New York City).

In astrology, all things start with the Ascendant. This is the place in a chart that gives the most specific information about the personality and sense of self. The Ascendant pinpoints the "overall nature" of someone.

In the case of Q, we see an Ascendant at 11° Pisces 41' (12 Pisces). Pisces is the sign associated with Spirit and the Divine. But a rare configuration accompanies Q's Ascendant: Neptune sits directly on top of it. In astrology, this is called "Neptune Ascending."

Neptune Ascending is a defining factor in the identity of Q.

Neptune Ascending in Pisces makes Q very "Neptunian." Neptune rules Pisces; it is its "home sign." Neptune represents creativity and spirituality. The combination of the Ascendant in exact conjunction with Neptune, both in Pisces, tells us that the "self" of the entity is exceptionally spiritual in nature.

Neptune Ascending in Pisces brings that which is undefinable and unperceivable, all shrouded in mystery. Q is illusory by nature, but also powerfully creative and, it would seem by the chart, divinely inspired.

Q'S ASCENDANT & NEPTUNE - "an examination of initiates in the sanctuary of an occult brotherhood"

Analysis of the data encoded in the zodiacal degrees of Q's "natal chart" gives the overall themes with which Q can be personally equated. Astrology uses the code known as the Sabian symbols to identify the specific energies associated with each of the 360 degrees of the zodiac. Each degree has a different frequency of energy with its own descriptor.

We gain a great deal of understanding when we look at the energetic frequency represented by Q's 12 Pisces Ascendant and conjunction with Neptune. Q's Ascendant of 12 Pisces is the Sabian symbol/descriptor of "an examination of initiates in the sanctuary of an occult brotherhood."

This says that Q's overall nature (Ascendant) is rooted in the examination of the various goings-on of occult initiates in the sanctuary of their own "brotherhood."

A fundamental component of Q is bringing out deep state players and their fondness for secret societies and occult rituals. Q examines what has been happening within the corrupt power structure through occult practices hidden in their own protected systems.

We might also say that Q has initiated a "fellowship of examiners" – the Autists.

In fact, many might say they found "sanctuary" in Q.

With Neptune Ascending and its shroud of secrecy, we likely will never know who Q is, and the astrology suggests this is the way it is meant to be.

Q'S CHIRON AND THE PLAN - "the purging of the priesthood"

In astrology, the First House shows personal characteristics and identity. We can look to the First House to extract even more information regarding the "self" that is Q.

Although Q is a perpetual mystery by design, the First House of Q's birth chart is remarkably specific in showing defining characteristics. Q's chart has Chiron in the First House. In Greek mythology, Chiron was the teacher of the arts of war, whose students included Achilles and Hercules.

Q's Chiron is located at 25 Pisces and the Sabian symbol of "the purging of the priesthood." This embodies Chiron's warrior energetics and themes of purging and healing the wounds of corruption.

Through Chiron, Q represents opportunities regained through divine intervention and imagination. Q is deeply aware of and impacted by what wounds us collectively as a society and a republic. The astrology indicates the potential for healing this pain by rectifying corruption in the ruling class.

Specifically, this is done through spreading a strong and divinely inspired message with the help of many spiritual warriors, which is Chiron's specialty. This leads to the return of righteousness through a great awakening.

This is who Q truly is, and this is what the presence of Q represents. This is also why the corrupt establishment (the "initiates in the occult brotherhood") are so threatened by the existence of Q.

Q'S MOON AND THE PLAN - "a big businessman at his desk"

Q's chart goes into depth about how certain root causes must be dealt with in order to fulfill the mission of Q. The astrology also shows who sent Q and lays out a strategy for completing the mission, i.e. "The Plan."

One of the most important and telling features of any astrology chart is the Moon. The Moon represents the emotions and inner workings of a situation or individual. Because the Moon is the fastest moving celestial body, it gives us a very specific and accurate picture of what is happening energetically at any given hour.

Therefore, it is important to analyze the Moon in order to discover the emotional undertones driving Q and the Q phenomenon. In Q's chart, the Moon rests at 16 degrees of Aquarius in the 12th house. If the First House represents the energy of the self, the Twelfth (or Last) House represents our connection to the Divine. The Moon in the Twelfth House lends a spiritual quality to the emotional underpinning of the Moon energetic. Here we have reinforcement of the spiritual nature of Q.

Further, the Sabian symbol for 16 Aquarius is "a big businessman at his desk." In my opinion, nothing could possibly be clearer: essentially, Q is a big businessman at his desk operating in the realms of the Divine. This is, with exacting detail, the emotional underpinning and driving force behind the whole Q phenomenon.

We know from the degree of Neptune and the Ascendant that Q embodies examination, healing, purging, restoring and reforming. Now we know, from the emotional perspective, that this directive is coming from a divine version of "a big businessman at his desk."

Q'S SUN AND THE PLAN - "a gold rush tears men away from their native lands"

The position of the Sun, as well as the planets around and opposing it, show why all of this has come to be and what must be done about it.

The Sun represents the energetic identity and purpose of an individual or entity. Q's Sun is located at 6 degrees of Scorpio in the Eighth House. The Eighth House represents going deep into the underworld. With the Sun here, Q is shining a light into darkness.

Because of the specific placement of Q's Sun, we know what is being illuminated is the source of our collective wounding. At the time of Q's metaphorical "birth" into consciousness, Jupiter, the planet of expansion (and a favorite planet of the initiates of the occult brotherhood), was in conjunction or close connection with the Sun.

Jupiter, expanding the light of the Sun, is also in direct opposition with the degree on the astrological wheel that represents our collective wounding and our ability to heal from it and grow.

So, with the Sun conjunct Jupiter, Q's purpose indicates amplifying full light and full intensity of awareness to our collective wounding and ability to heal.

But to understand the nature of the wounding and what we must do to heal and grow, again we look to the specific energetics being discharged. At 6 Scorpio, the Sun is discharging the Sabian symbol of "a gold rush tears men away from their native soil."

Because gold is symbolic of value, Q's Sun here represents illumination of something so valuable that people are willing to uproot their lives in order to pursue it.

But what is that valuable?

Always in opposition to the Sun as the Sun's polarity, the Earth in Q's chart is located at the degree 6 Taurus, the energetic frequency of "a bridge being built across a high, narrow gorge."

So this shows us there is danger associated with this "gold rush," and a "bridge" over the peril must be built in order to get where we need to go to heal ourselves and find the real "gold."

Q'S JUPITER AND THE PLAN - "a youth holding a lighted candle in a devotional ritual"

Looking deeper into Jupiter, we discover more about the wound that Q heals. Again, this is because Jupiter is located both next to the Sun and exactly opposite the zodiacal degree of collective wounding and healing (4 Taurus).

Jupiter is located at 4 Scorpio and the Sabian symbol of "a youth holding a lighted candle in a devotional ritual." This placement of Jupiter in the Eighth House of the underworld combines our collective wounding and need for healing, learning and growth with our values. A distortion of our values has led to our wounding, allowing darkness to take hold of our innocence and our light.

With this planet, this house, this degree, and this symbol, the core problem is obvious. This is about innocence lost and the dismantling of values through predation of our most precious creation as humans: our children and the vitality and potential they represent.

Q exposes the deepest, darkest ritualistic behavior feeding off the energy of children. The "candle" shines full light on what must be healed and brought up for discovery and discussion. Ritualistic abuse of children is the root problem on full display.

This wound must be healed in order to reach the "gold" – everything people are willing to sacrifice to metaphorically "mine." Q shows the problem. But, as indicated by the position of the Earth at "a bridge being built across a high, narrow gorge," reaching the "gold" requires building a bridge over perilous terrain which has been impassible to all who have tried to cross up until now.

Q'S NORTH NODE AND THE PLAN – "a carrier pigeon fulfilling its mission"

So how can we accomplish this? We must reach the gold, but how? The darkness can be immersive, causing us to feel out of shape and unconditioned to such a daunting pursuit. The answer is also in Q's chart. The answer is us.

Remember, Q is about examining how the corrupt establishment has been operating in the safety and cover of their own systems. (Ascendant and Neptune). In order to initiate this examination, Spirit gives the big businessman at this desk a plan (Moon in 12th House).

Q's chart indicates that the plan will succeed.

This is shown by the North Node opposite Q's Moon. The North Node represents destiny. Q's North Node is 21 Leo and the Sabian symbol "a carrier pigeon fulfilling its mission." The unfolding of destiny or a seemingly impossible undertaking occurs, but the mission is successful.

This symbol also says that the "mission" is really a message because carrier pigeons deliver communications.

The North Node is in the 6th House. The 6th House rules work and health. This indicates that fulfilment of the mission requires consistent effort, but also monitoring of workload in order to preserve one's health.

Q'S MERCURY AND THE PLAN – “a parrot, listening and then talking, repeats a conversation he has overheard”

Q's chart not only has pigeons; it also has parrots.

Mercury, the planet known for messages and communications, is located at 19 Scorpio and the Sabian symbol of “a parrot, listening and then talking, repeats a conversation he has overheard.”

Messages. Parroting messages. In Q speak, we might say, “Where we go one, we go all.”

Q'S MARS AND THE PLAN – “around a campfire, a group of young people sit in spiritual communion”

Mars in a chart represents how we use our energy and the ability to take action. Mars is also known as the Planet of War. In Q's chart, Mars is located at 4 Libra and the Sabian symbol of “around a campfire, a group of young people sit in spiritual communion.”

This indicates that the driving force behind the successful accomplishing of the mission is a communal army of spiritual warriors whose collective efforts are dedicated to stoking the truth.

And here we find the Anons baking bread, as they call it. As manifest in our reality, this symbol could easily be re-interpreted as, “around a message board, a group of inspired researchers are fueled by a spiritual calling to truth.”

We are Q. We are what makes Q real. The Anons really are the motor of the machine that is Q and the Q movement. It's the Anons who are spearheading the message and building the bridge in order to complete the plan.

Q'S SATURN & BLACK MOON AND THE PLAN – “a chubby boy on a hobby horse” and “a fat boy mowing the lawn”

Q's chart has Saturn and the Black Moon close together in the 10th House. The 10th House represents the public and the establishment.

Saturn rules restrictions and responsibilities; the Black Moon rules the shadow side and rebirth. This placement of Saturn and the Black Moon indicates dispelling the shadow that has been ruling the public sphere and bringing it into alignment with divine wisdom and truth.

Interestingly, the Sabian symbols involved are Saturn at “a chubby boy on a hobby horse,” and the Black Moon at “a fat boy mowing the lawn.” These energetics point out the ease, excess and overindulgence in which the power structure has basked, one which now needs to be restructured and restored.

These energetics also indicate an exhausting, almost overwhelming effort that is required to clean things up because things have been out of shape for so long. A “healing crisis” of sorts may be endured in order to clear the collective spiritual body. Through this effort, however, changes occur, and corruption is purged.

The Anons and the rest of the Q movement work together to disrupt the lazy, over indulgent status quo of the establishment, transmuting their dark shadow into light.

Or as Q would say, “Darkness into light.”

Even in the astrology, this is Q.

SUMMARY

The data of Q’s chart shows, in symbolic forms:

1. A big businessman knows of major problems and seeks the solutions.
2. Critical connections must be made in order to bring the restoration.
3. Until this point, the connections were impossible to make because the danger was always too great.
4. The Divine provided the big businessman with a plan.
5. A messenger parroted secret information that could be used to safely build the connections and solve the problems.
6. The identity of the messenger is vague, mysterious, and undeterminable in nature.
7. The identity of the messenger remains a perpetual question in order to be effective.
8. The force behind the anonymous messenger is driven by divine creativity, imagination, spirit, revolution, purging, opportunity, examination, healing, growth, truth, and light, but requires the inspired tenacity, spiritual communion, and diligence of many in order to ensure the plan’s success.

9. The big businessman's plan demands justice and realignment with spiritual values.
10. The emergence of the messenger ignites the opportunity to dispel dark forces and restructure systems toward a basis in higher values.
11. The messenger is joined by the vital force of an army of inspired spiritual warriors disseminating messages of truth and building a bridge to the light.
