

Privacy Policy

First Baptist Church of Decatur

Updated: June 5, 2018

We are committed to protecting your personal privacy and your right to privacy. If you have questions with anything regarding your personal information, please contact Dilshad Premji at dpremji@fbcdecatur.com

What information do we collect?

When you use certain functions within our website, we ask you for personal information (such as your name, email address and an account password). We do not sell, rent, or disclose your personally identifiable information with outside organizations without your explicit permission. For certain services, we may allow you to opt out of providing such information.

Within the website, you have the ability to give financially to First Baptist Church of Decatur. Because we use third party services to process credit cards, we do not store full credit card numbers or verification numbers on our servers at any time.

How do we use your information?

We automatically collect certain information when you visit, use or navigate the website. This information does not reveal your specific identity (like your name or contact information) but may include device and usage information, such as your IP address, browser and device characteristics, operating system, language preferences, referring URLs, device name, country, location, information about how and when you use our website, and other technical information. This information is primarily needed to maintain security and operation of our sites, and for our internal analytics and reporting purposes. We may combine this information with information from third parties to provide you with a better experience and to improve the quality of our service to you. Again, we do not sell, rent, or share any personally identifiable information with third parties without your explicit permission.

Website cookies

Like many businesses, we also collect information through cookies and similar technologies. When you use the website, we may send one or more cookies to your computer, so that we may uniquely identify your browser. (A cookie is simply a tiny text file containing a string of characters). Accepting our cookies allows you to keep your user preferences from session to session. Although most browsers accept cookies by default, you can set your browser to refuse all cookies, or to tell you when you are being sent a cookie. Some of the website features and services may not function properly if you have cookies disabled.

Third party sites

This Privacy Policy applies only to the website operated by us. We cannot regulate other sites linked from within our various services. These others sites may place their own cookies or other files on your computer, collect data or solicit personal information from you. You should familiarize yourself with their unique Privacy Policies, should you choose to visit their sites. Some of these sites include:

How do we protect your information?

We do not sell, rent, or share your personal information with other institutions without your explicit consent. We may share your personal information only if we have a good faith belief that access, use, preservation or disclosure of such information is reasonably necessary to: (a) satisfy any applicable law, regulation, legal process or enforceable governmental request; (b) enforce applicable Terms of Use, including investigation of potential violations thereof; (c) detect, prevent, or otherwise address fraud, security or technical issues; or (d) protect against imminent harm to the rights, property or safety of us, our users or the public as required or permitted by law.

We implement a variety of security measures to maintain the safety of your personal information when you submit a request, place an order, or enter, submit or access your personal information. These security measures include: password protected directories and databases to safeguard your information.

All supplied sensitive/credit information is transmitted via Secure Socket Layer (SSL) technology and then encrypted into our Payment gateway provider's database only to be accessible by those authorized with special access rights to such systems and are required to keep the information confidential.

How long do we keep your information?

We keep your information for as long as required. For our MailChimp services, subscribers are removed from our list servers after twelve months of inactivity.

What are your privacy rights?

You may review, change, or terminate your account and your information at any time.

Your consent

By using our website, you consent to our privacy policy.

Changes to our Privacy Policy

If we decide to change our privacy policy, we will post those changes on this page.

How can you contact us about this policy?

If you have any questions regarding this Privacy Policy or your personal information as it pertains to First Baptist Church of Decatur, please contact Dilshad Premji at dpremji@fbcdecatour.com
