ACCOUNTABILITY QUESTIONS

Your Life Group needs to be a safe place where group members can open up and share on a personal level. Developing a group that authentically shares will take time. You can't force it. Instead focus on investing yourself relationally into the lives of those within your group. Only once relational trust is established, can you then begin to ask heart penetrating questions like the ones listed below.

MEN

1. Have you exposed yourself to any explicit or marginal material including TV, movies, the internet, or magazines?
2. Have you lusted after a woman, real or imaginary?
3. Have you been with a woman in such a way that was inappropriate, or could have looked like you were using poor judgment?
4. Have you exercised self-control over food, drink, smoking, or tobacco?
5. Have you gossiped or demonstrated a critical spirit?
6. Have you neglected fellowship with other believers by not attending church or small group?
7. Are you aware of any unconfessed sin(s) in your life?
8. Is there anyone you need to forgive?
9. Have you been completely above reproach in all your financial dealings?
10. Have you spent your time and money wisely?
11. Have you fulfilled your personal goals for prayer, scripture reading, and memorization?

IF MARRIED OR HAVE CHILDREN

1. Have you complimented and affirmed your wife?
2. Have you been helpful to your wife without being asked?
3. Have you been the spiritual leader of your family?
4. Have you spent sufficient quality time with your children?

WOMEN

1. Have you been exposed to sexually alluring material this week?
2. Have you fulfilled your personal goals for prayer, scripture reading, and memorization this week?
3. Are you aware of any unconfessed sin(s) in your life?
4. Have you been completely above reproach in all your financial dealings this week?
5. Have you been a good steward of all of the resources God has given you (money, time, talent, etc)?
6. Do you have anyone you need to forgive?
7. Have you been involved in the sins of gossip, demonstrating a critical spirit, or jealousy?
8. Have you been with a man this week in such a way that was inappropriate or could have looked like you were using poor judgment?
9. Have you stood for Christ in the marketplace in which you work this week?
10. Have you taken every opportunity to share Christ with your unsaved family, friends, and co-workers?
11. Have you been completely honest during this conversation?

IF MARRIED OR HAVE CHILDREN

1. Have you demonstrated love, respect, and submission to your husband?
2. Have you been guarding your home from outside influences that would be unhealthy for your family?
3. Have you spent sufficient quality time with your children?
4. In what ways have you sought to have spiritual input with your children this week?
