

ORPHANS TO AMBASSADORS

2015 SUMMARY

Project Summaries

Solar Panel Installation

Harvest Children's Homes

May 2015
Cameroon
60 Children Impacted
$17,729
Solar Computer Lab
Rain Water Harvesting

The solar powered computer lab provided a sustainable and renewable method for providing a computer literacy program to all the children of Harvest Children's Home and the organizations staff.

Computer Literacy Programs

Rainwater Harvesting System Installation

The rainwater harvesting system was an add on to an original rain water harvesting system implemented in 2015 to provided free and clean drinking water for the children's home.

Nazerratti Center

November 2015
42 Children Impacted
$18,764
New Study Hall, agricultural extension, animal husbandry and land extension

Banana Farm

Nepal Solar Computer Lab

October 2015
100 Children Impacted
$5,840
10,000 watt solar system to support 25 laptops used for computer literacy programs

Computer Literacy Programs

India Livestock Program

September 2015
200 Children Impacted
$6,894
Sustainable chicken coups with starter chickens to provide a renewable and sustainable food source

Project Completion Group Photo

Board of Directors

Jake Gentry (President)
Heather Wiekert
Peter Cooper
Kathy Caldwell
Cheryl Click
Suzanne Gentry
Jennifer Whitaker

Volunteer Leadership

Kara White-Moyes
Katherine Steen
Jesalyn Dvorak
Eli Sheldon
Barbara Patadjl
Levi Gentry

Project Locations

Cameroon
Tanzania
Nepal
India

Contact Information

Orphans to Ambassadors
4742 42nd Ave SW
Suite #479
Seattle, WA
98116

Jake Gentry
jake@orphanstoambassadors.org

Financial Information

(As reported in the 2015 IRS Form 990)

