Vocabulary
Help kids learn specific words so they can express themselves and eventually become better readers and writers.

Baby Food by Saxton Freymann and Joost Elffers
Is it a pear, a baby bird, or both?
First Words Baby Genius Series
This is a picture dictionary of a toddler’s world.

Get to Work Trucks! by Don Carter
Learn the names of different trucks as they go through a busy workday. Roaring Brook Press

How Will You Get There, Maisy? by Lucy Cousins
Use clues to guess how Maisy and her friends will travel from here to there.

Look and Find with Bear by Susan Kantor
Help Bear in the Big Blue House find all sorts of things.

My Car Board Book by Barton Byron
Learn all about cars in this colorful book.

My First Farm: Spanish/English
Look at and name these bright photos in both languages!

Shhhhh! Everybody’s Sleeping by Julie Markes
Enjoy this perfect tucking-into-bed book with your favorite toddler. Harper Collins

Sound Sensitivity/Phonological Awareness
Recognizing beginning, middle, and ending sounds is one of the most important pre-reading skills.

Baby Danced the Polka by Karen Beaumont
There’s lots of romping and rhyming in this happy family book.

Buzzy’s Boo Boo by Harriet Ziefert
Which bandage should Buzzy choose?

I Know a Rhino by Charles Fuge
This playful story has silly pictures and a surprise ending.

Subby by Anastasia Suen
Take a brightly colored rhythmic ride with a girl and her mother.

Ten Little Fish by Audrey and Bruce Wood
Toddler learning to count can fill in the blanks with the rhyming numbers.

Trashy Town by Andrea Zimmerman
Children love to help tell the story of how to clean Trashy Town.

What Is It? by Amy Allen
Have fun guessing what each picture is in this colorful rhyming book. Wedding Solutions Publishing

Narrative Skills
Help kids develop language skills by talking about the books, asking and answering questions, and putting words together to make phrases.

Carl’s Sleepy Afternoon by Alexandra Day
Carl’s owner thinks he is napping... but what is he really up to?

Ella Sarah Gets Dressed by Margaret Chodos-Irvine
What will Ella Sarah wear?

Father Who Had 10 Children by Benedicte Guettier
Count your way through the adventures of this large family.

Good Dog, Daisy by Lisa Kopper
Uh-oh! Daisy’s puppies are acting just like toddlers.

If You Were Born a Kitten by Marion Bauer
Find out how baby animals are born in this tender book.

Kiss Good Night by Amy Hest
Sam’s bedtime routine is upset when his mother forgets something very important.

Knuffle Bunny: A Cautionary Tale by Mo Willems
You won’t believe what happens to Trixie when she goes to the Laundromat with Dad.

Larabee by Kevin Luthardt
What does Larabee want more than anything? Peachtree Publishers

Let’s Go by Jane Chapman
Can the motorcycle pass all these vehicles?

Moon Came Down on Milk Street by Jean Gralley
Follow the helpers in this gentle story, as they do their part.

Mud Pie for Mother by Scott Beck
Little Pig wants to make something special for Mother’s birthday in this story about kindness and generosity.

My Bunny and Me by Lindsay Barrett George
Luis wants a bunny, but what would he do if he really had one?

New House for Mouse by Petr Horacek
Will mouse ever find a new house big enough for him and his apple?

Oliver Finds His Way by Phyllis Root
See how this little bear finds his way home.

On Mother’s Lap by Ann Herbert Scott
When baby comes, this gentle book asks if there’s still room for big brother.

Pie in the Sky by Lois Elhert
From seed to dessert, this book looks at cherries.

Please, Puppy, Please by Spike Lee and Tonya Lewis Lee
Will their new puppy behave? Simon and Schuster 2005

Sally Goes to the Vet by Stephen Huneck
Learn what happens when visiting the dog doctor.

Wild Cowboy by Dana Kessimakis Smith
Is this a visit to Grandma’s or a ride on the range?
Concept Books
Help children learn colors, numbers, opposites, and other important concepts.

26 Letters and 99 Cents by Tana Hoban
Two books in one! Practice your ABCs and your 123s.

Alphabet House by Nancy Elizabeth Wallace
Practice colors and the alphabet in this “I Spy” kind of book.

Big Nose, Small Nose by Steve Augarde
Giggle and guess the opposites in this funny turn-the-wheel book.

Dora’s Opposites/Opuestos de Dora by Phoebe Beinstein
Have fun with Dora and her friends in this exciting bilingual book about opposites!

Duckie’s Ducklings: A One-to-Ten Counting Book by Frances Barry
These ducklings are having fun with their mother.

Fiesta! by Ginger Foglesong Guy
Practice counting in Spanish in this book about piñatas and parties.

Good Night, Poppy and Max: A Bedtime Counting Book by Lindsey Gardiner
Can you count all the things Poppy and Max use to get ready for bed?

Joey and Jet: Book One by James Yang
Follow Jet as he fetches the ball up, down and all around.

Maisy Goes Camping by Lucy Cousins
Counting and camping are so much fun with Maisy and her friends.

Raindrop, Plop! by Wendy Cheyette Lewison
Learn colors and counting with a girl and her dog as they enjoy the rain.

Red Train by Will Grace
Practice colors, counting, and animal names with this great rhyming book.

Ruby’s Rainy Day by Rosemary Wells
Brother and sister learn colors in this funny book just perfect for any weather.

Siesta by Ginger Foglesong Guy
This simple story uses a bilingual approach to teach colors.

10 Little Rubber Ducks by Eric Carle
Learn ordinal numbers and enjoy a great surprise at the end of this beautiful book.

Especially Great For Interaction
2’s and 3’s learn to love books and language best when a caring adult encourages interaction while sharing a book.

Can You Cuddle a Koala? by John Butler
Have fun doing all these animal movements.

Cornelius P. Mud, Are You Ready for Bed? by Barney Saltzberg
Enjoy the zany bedtime routine of Cornelius P. Mud, a very silly pig.

Do Zebras Have Spots? by Judi Hindley
This is a see-through book featuring funny photos.

Does a Cow Say Boo? by Judy Hindley
Kids will moo and hoof through this active book.

Duck’s Key, Where Can it Be? by Jez Alborough
Lift the flaps and rhyme as frog leads Duck on a wild duck chase.

“Hi, Pizza Man!” by Virginia Walter
What would you say to a pizza-delivering dinosaur?

I Can Do It Tool by Karen Baicker
Toddlers will repeat the title as they see all the things they can do, too!

Lemons Are Not Red by Laura Vaccaro Seeger
Guess what’s hiding in the clever cut-outs this book uses to teach colors.

Millie Wants to Play by Janet Pedersen
Guess the farm animals by their sound while Millie learns to be patient.

Tickle the Duck! by Ethan Long
You won’t be able to stop tickling and laughing at this silly duck.

We’re Going on a Treasure Hunt by Lenny Hort
Real kids dressed up like sea creatures fill this fun call-and-response book.

We’ve All Got Bellybuttons! by David Martin
Do you, can you, will you act like animals, too?

To request these books, call these Branch Libraries:
EL CAJON 619-588-3718
POWAY 858-513-2900
VISTA 760-643-5100

Created by San Diego County Library Youth Services