If you're anything like us, you love discovering a cool new boutique in your neighborhood, or buying a product from someone who makes it by hand. Whether they're cutting hair, making jewelry, or sharpening knives, local artisans bring unique perspectives to our neighborhoods, and Working Solutions is proud to help them make their passions a success.

In Oakland or Petaluma, San Bruno or San Francisco, local businesses are what make neighborhoods special. And wherever you're from, chances are that there is a Working Solutions entrepreneur nearby—a local business owner who is earning their livelihood, creating jobs, and bringing something a little different to your community.

Working Solutions is pleased to present you with this directory of our Client businesses. We invite you to get out there and shop local—visit the salon down the street, or eat at that corner restaurant—and create a thriving local economy in your neighborhood.
