Lesson One
Writing Activity

• “Once you have a family, they’re your responsibility. Their lives, health and education, even their clothing. Everything is your responsibility.”
  ~ Mamadou Diop, farmer

• “The project has introduced knowledge, education, capabilities, and relief. The next step being implemented is solar power. It has confused us a little bit, but we’re going to learn how to bring water to the farm without so much effort.”
  ~ Ousmane Faye, farmer

• “Before, a strong child was sent directly to farm because we could not afford school. But today, by God’s grace, our children can go to school or start a career by learning a trade.”
  ~ Ousmane Faye, farmer

• “I committed to this work to stand up for my people, especially the area of maternal health.
  ~ Seynabou Ndiaye, Community Health Worker
