Sample Scenario #1

A homeless person is asking for food or money outside of a local restaurant. Someone is yelling at the homeless person and telling them to go away. The homeless person says he/she is willing to work for the food or money, but the perpetrator will not listen. A third person walks onto the scene. How will he or she choose to react?

Sample Scenario #2

A new student has just arrived at your school. The student is a newly arrived immigrant from the Middle East. As the new student attempts to find a seat in the cafeteria, another student tells him or her to go back to their country, that he or she is not welcome at the school. A third person walks into the scene. How will he or she choose to react?
