

The English Department is offering a Summer Reading Incentive. Students can start the 2020-2021 school year with extra credit points by doing some Summer Reading. During the first week of school, students will be assessed on their summer reading book and earn extra credit points. Please review the Summer Reading list below, find your grade level reading assignment, and begin reading! This assignment is optional - not a requirement - but highly recommended.

Freshmen/Freshmen Honors

Fahrenheit 451 by Ray Bradbury

Sophomores (Choose one)

Animal Farm by George Orwell

The Old Man and the Sea by Ernest Hemingway

A Raisin in the Sun by Lorraine Hansberry

Sophomore Honors

King Lear by Shakespeare

Juniors (Choose one)

Their Eyes Were Watching God by Zora Neal Hurston

The Secret Life of Bees by Sue Monk Kidd

The Sun Also Rises by Ernest Hemingway

Slaughterhouse Five by Kurt Vonnegut

Seniors

The Narrative of the Life of Frederick Douglass by Frederick Douglass

AP English 11 & AP English 12

The Narrative of the Life of Frederick Douglass by Frederick Douglass

If you have any questions regarding this summer reading extra credit opportunity please contact Diana Serrano at dserrano@sfdshs.org.