Women’s Annex Foundation, New York, NY. December 2012 – October 2013.

Outreach coordinator of Women’s Annex, a non-profit organization and online video and blogging platform that financially empowers women in Central Asia. Working alongside entrepreneurs Roya Mahboob (TIME 100) and Fereshteh Forough (TED and Clinton Initiative speaker), I drafted and published official press releases, copy-edited the initiative’s brochure, created a filmmaking curriculum to be taught at Afghan high schools with filmmakers, and produced content for online distribution.

Film Annex, New York, NY. January 2008 – October 2013.

Creative Director of Film Annex, an online film distribution platform. Film Annex has been ranked by Quantcast as high as #31 in the US with over 40 million monthly unique visitors. As Creative Director, I curated the platform’s homepage and programmed films, oversaw the re-design of the website, set up distribution deals with filmmakers, produced and filmed interviews and videos for the site, represented the platform at film festivals such as Tribeca and SXSW, oversaw PR and outreach, and worked alongside web developers to optimize the site for search engines
