It's Still All About Jesus

“[Jesus] must increase, but I must decrease...The Father loves the Son and has given all things into His hand. Whoever believes in the Son has eternal life; whoever does not obey the Son shall not see life, but the wrath of God remains on him” (John 3:30, 35-36 ESV).

Dear Brothers and Sisters of our Lord Jesus Christ,

John the Baptist, the forerunner of Christ, lets us know very clearly that when it comes to salvation, it's all about Jesus. “Jesus must increase, and I must decrease,” John said. And pointing to Jesus he proclaimed for all to hear, “Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world!”

This year we celebrate the 500th Anniversary of the Reformation. We celebrate the Reformation like John the Baptist, it was all about Jesus. The same was true for Martin Luther, too. It's still all about Jesus in the Lutheran Church – Missouri Synod, and at Our Savior Lutheran. We believe, teach, and confess that Jesus is Lord. Our pastor is called and ordained (given orders) to say what Jesus says through His Word, the Scriptures (Old and New Testament), nothing more and nothing less. He wears a robe as a reminder that the Divine Service is all about Jesus, not him. He wears the stole received at ordination as a reminder that he is there to do the Lord's bidding, not what he or anyone else wants. Like John the Baptist, your pastor has a motto, “Jesus must increase, we must decrease.” In addition, our liturgy and hymnody are simply proclamations of the Word of God as received from Scripture alone. We say back to God what He has said to us through His Word.

Unfortunately, however, it's not always all about Jesus with us, is it? It's all about you. It's all about me. There are times when we seek to make a name for ourselves by doing what we want instead of fixing our eyes on “Jesus, the founder and perfecter of our faith” (Hebrews 12:2 ESV). Instead of “delighting in His will and walking in His ways to the glory of His holy name” (LSB p. 151), we delight in what we want, and do our own thing to the glory of me, myself, and I. There is not just an “I” in things like an iPhone or an iPad. There is also an “I” in the word idolatry. Idolatry is the worship of self instead of God.

It turns out that we are in need of reformation every day. Hence, the Lord through His Word brings us to repentance for our sin and to faith in Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of our sin. The Word of God through John the Baptist still applies, “Repent for the kingdom of heaven is at hand” (Matthew 3:2 ESV). “Whoever believes in the Son has eternal life.” It's still all about Jesus. A blessed Reformation to you all!

In Christ,
Pastor Pautz
