Giving Thanks For All The Saints

Dear Brothers and Sisters of our Lord Jesus Christ,

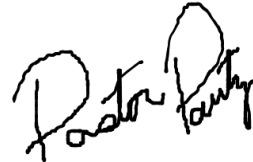

Who and what do you believe, and why? For many, that depends on which way the wind of public opinion is blowing. Have you ever noticed that often when deciding an important issue the question is not whether or not something is true or beneficial, but what the majority of people believe? The apostle Paul warns about this when he says, “For the time is coming when people will not endure sound teaching, but having itching ears they will accumulate for themselves teachers to suit their own passions, and will turn away from listening to the truth and wander off into myths” (2 Timothy 4:3). Myths or cleverly invented stories or the virtual realities that we have created for ourselves are useless when it comes to the truth of our sin and death. These things happen in reality so the polling data is of no use in these matters. We need to look to Jesus who is the way, the truth, and the life so that we can actually deal with them instead of pretending our sin doesn’t matter or that our inescapable death isn’t real. It is Jesus alone who has overcome our sin and death. He did it in reality, with witnesses. People witnessed Jesus’ death that paid for our sins and His resurrection that confirmed that He is the Lord God in the flesh. It happened. His words have authority because what He had said would happen actually occurred. This is still true today. What He says through the proclamation of His Word He does.

This month we celebrate All Saints’ Day. We give thanks for all the saints and for the courage of their convictions that came through faith in Jesus Christ. As William Weedon writes, “Their holiness was always and only the righteousness of the Saint, the Holy One, the Lord Jesus, whose perfect obedience to His Father even to the cross God credited to them by faith. They are holy because the blood of Calvary forgave their sins. They are holy because the Holy Spirit joined them to the Savior in living faith, and so His love shone through their lives (Celebrating the Saints, p. 8). It is the same with us.

Like Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy gave thanks for the people they served, we give thanks for all of you, the saints here at Our Savior. “We give thanks to God always for all of you, constantly mentioning you in our prayers, remembering before our God and Father your work of faith and labor of love and steadfastness of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ. For we know, brothers [and sisters] loved by God, that he has chosen you, because our gospel came to you not only in word, but also in power and in the Holy Spirit and with full conviction” (1 Thessalonians 1:1-5a ESV).

So as you carry on through these gray and latter days, “Be strong and courageous...for it is the Lord your God who goes with you. He will not leave you or forsake you” (Deuteronomy 31:6). Follow the example of the saints who have gone before us and, “Cast care aside, lean on your guide; His boundless mercy will provide. Trust and enduring faith shall prove Christ is your life and Christ your love” (LSB #664 vs. 3). In Christ,

Martin Luther quote for the end of the church year: "Behold, therefore, the separation of the sheep and the goats is already made in this life, so that everyone can experience it internally and must indicate and show it externally. For they who have not faith will surely do none of these things, they will neither comfort themselves with the grace of Christ, nor think of exercising mercy; they pass by the Word of God and their neighbor, as though they neither saw nor heard anything; they do no care to know that there is a Lord whom they are to serve and who will demand such service from them. For if they would consider that they must die, and appear before this judgment seat, they would not at the time defraud anyone of a penny. But, on the contrary, they think best to turn their eyes away from death and to keep the heart from thinking of it" (Lenker: Complete Sermons of Martin Luther, Volume 3, page 390, paragraph 25).

November 2017

Dear Our Savior Lutheran Church and Friends,

The seasons of Advent and Christmas are upon us once again. As your shepherd under the Shepherd Jesus Christ, I thought this an especially appropriate time to write to you in order to encourage you in the faith. Unfortunately, this can be a very hectic time of year as we attempt to meet everyone's expectations of us. Often, we end up wearing ourselves out running after the things of this world, with little energy left for our Lord and one another.

The message of Advent and Christmas is that our Lord comes to bring us together with Him and one another through His Word and Sacrament. Real life and peace are not found in the things of this world but in our Lord Jesus Christ and the life He has given us to live together.

Our Christmas schedule is printed on the back of this letter which details the dates and times of services and events through the Epiphany of our Lord observed on January 7th.

If you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to give me or your elder a call. I look forward to receiving the Lord's Gospel gifts with you this Advent and Christmas season.

God bless you,
