INTERNATIONAL STUDENT LISTENING SPACE

This listening space is geared toward undergraduate and graduate international students. It’s a supportive space to share and process your experiences as an international student.

Topics may include adjusting to online coursework in a different time zone, immigration and visa-related stress, family expectation and future stressors, xenophobia, interpersonal relationships distress and the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic. The goal of this space is for students to listen, connect, and support each other.

Register: tinyurl.com/uam62hc.

Join us 9–10 a.m. ET

2 March

30 March

27 April

11 May

Questions? Contact Zen Zhong, M.Phil.Ed, LLPC at zhongz@msu.edu.