THE CURRENCY OF FREEDOM

Deficit, Grace and True Wealth

with Brian O'Donnell, Great Lakes Pathwork

Pathwork Helpers and experienced Pathworkers are invited to join us for a spacious week to explore the common split of money and soulful living with Brian O'Donnell, Ph.D., who has been a student, Helper, supervisor and teacher of the Pathwork for the past 37 years.

Our relationship with money reveals our deepest degrees of separation as well as our true faith in life. Money, like sex, can be a compelling screen covering past wounds, unmet needs, issues around control, security and authority and ultimately trust in Life.

Dates:

Thursday, July 12th, 9:00 am – Tuesday, July 17th, 1:00 pm (lunch included)

Location:

Pendle Hill, a Quaker Retreat Center in Philadelphia, PA; Accessible by car, plane (Philadelphia International Airport) and train (Philadelphia 30th Street Station). Staying at Pendle Hill is a retreat experience in itself; the rooms are quiet, you can explore 23 beautiful acres of woodland trails, and all meals are consciously prepared using local and organic ingredients.

Cost:

Course fee: $750; Room for 5 nights 7/12-7/17: single room $90; double room $70; option to have dinner ($14) and stay Wednesday night; all bathrooms are shared; commuting option is also available (only course fee would apply plus any meals).

Conflict, shame, avoidance and compulsion that surround money can obscure the radical and simple gesture of Surrender to Life, which according to the Guide, can open the door to the Infinite Treasury, which is our True Nature.

All too often, especially in spiritual circles, frank discussion of finances is taboo. Revealing our net worth can be as difficult to expose as deep seated negativity or sexual distortion. The Summer Institute format gives us the luxury to deeply delve into our fundamental beliefs, attitudes and behaviors around this essential aspect of daily life. What do we truly invest in? How do we spend ourselves? And how to live an awake life in an intimate relationship with money?

Please note: For those who are interested, there may be an option to continue studying with Brian in an online format throughout 2018-2019, and to return to the Institute for another in-person session in the summer of 2019.
