

For Immediate Release
12/12/2012

Contact: Karen St. Cyr,
Port of Greater Baton Rouge, (225) 342-1660

Port of Greater Baton Rouge Commission Elects 2013 Officers

BATON ROUGE, LA – The board of commissioners for the Port of Greater Baton Rouge recently elected officers for 2013. Officers elected include Timothy W. Hardy, East Baton Rouge Parish, president; Blaine Sheets, Ascension Parish, vice president; Angela Machen, Ph.D., East Baton Rouge Parish, secretary; and Clint Seneca, Iberville Parish, treasurer.

Timothy W. Hardy, president, is a practicing attorney and partner in the Roedel, Parsons, Koch, Blache, Balhoff & McCollister Law Firm. He heads the firm's Environmental Law Practice Group.

Blaine Sheets, vice president, is president of Specialized Industrial Maintenance in Gonzales, Louisiana and is a former member of the Board of Commissioners for the Pontchartrain Levee District.

Angela Machen Ph.D, secretary, is certified in occupational safety and hazardous waste operations and emergency response. She has worked in environmental management, health research and toxicology at Louisiana State University and Tulane Health Sciences Center.

Clint Seneca, treasurer, is the chief deputy assessor for the Iberville Parish Assessor's Office. He is also first vice-chairman of the Iberville Chamber of Commerce and is a board member of the Keep Iberville Beautiful Committee.

The port governance body is a 15-member commission appointed by Governor Jindal to establish policy and provide oversight into the port's development. Port commissioners are selected from the four parishes served by the port: Ascension, Iberville, East and West Baton Rouge.

For more information on the Port of Greater Baton Rouge, visit the website at www.portgbr.com.