

Photo Release for Minors

First Presbyterian Church of Dallas

First Presbyterian Church has a policy stating that no names of children under age 18 will be printed with photographs used for promotion. The exception is from time to time for special occasions in the newspaper or e-news (which is subscription based) when parents are consulted. (An example of an exception is High School Senior profiles or Third Grade Bibles.)

I understand this policy and hereby authorize First Presbyterian Church to use pictures or photographic images of my child or my children to promote FPC by reprinting the pictures, or providing copies of the pictures for reprinting in

- FPC newspapers
- FPC Electronic News
- Brochures, Directories
