Club Rules

1. Participants may provide their own materials for gaming. Upper Darby Township + Sellers Memorial Free Public Library is not responsible for participants' trading cards or electronic gaming equipment.
2. Trading during club time will be allowed. Trading is optional, and some members may choose not to trade. Materials may NOT be sold on library property.
3. The goal of the club is to provide a safe and friendly gaming environment. Foul language, aggressive behavior, or the exchange of money are grounds for dismissal from one meeting. Continued inappropriate behavior or documented stealing will result in permanent dismissal from the club.
4. ALL participants must have a signed permission slip on file with the library. No visitors are allowed, even if they are not playing or trading.
5. ALL participants must be in grades 6 through 12.
6. Participants who miss four gaming sessions in a row will be dropped from the membership list and replaced with a new member, unless they notify the library of their circumstances.
7. Participants must stay for the entire meeting, unless they notify the library of a specific need.
