

Foto Ruta London

Part time Marketing and Event Intern

We are a creative photography tour and workshop company in the process of launching in London. We're looking for an enthusiastic and experienced marketing person to support our London Director in a part time marketing role.

The assistant will work part time alongside Foto Ruta's director to help promote the company and its offering to its target market as well as supporting on logistics, location scouting and on-event. on the operations side of the business.

If you answer yes to all / most of the following we'd love to hear from you!:

- Know London like the back of your hand
- An understanding of the local tourist industry
- An outgoing and sociable personality
- An understanding of marketing / promotion
- An interest in Photography
- Great organisational skills
- Available at least one Saturday afternoon a month
- Ability to work on a freelance / flexible basis

Tasks

- Marketing and promotion
- Event management
- Location and route scouting

Compensation:

This is a part time paid role. Days and hours are flexible and can be mutually agreed on employment

To apply:

Please send an email cover note and CV along with the following information to hello@foto-ruta.co.uk

- Hours and days available
- How far does your knowledge of London go?
- Detail any experience/understanding you have of the tourist industry
- Details of your interest in photography
- Why you think you're suited to this role