

Country Jukebox

Max W. Achatz

The stage is set for BRANT Croucher : The [eleven] songs written by him lift his Blanco County and Lights -titled debut album produced by Jack Saunders far above the average. Americana , folk and country music are the ingredients from which the ambitious singer / songwriter from Houston, Texas, knitting his music. These declines the talented storyteller by different feelings , sometimes melancholic, sometimes critical and sometimes quite compatible radio . In general, there is never a dull moment in his intense , memorable songs that he performs with his wonderfully emotional voice. And are able to use these headphones captivate you always . The result is an album first quality of an artist who makes a very good figure
