Aragonite Collection

Pinaki Studios launches luxury fashion accessories

Fresh from developing specialist textiles for HBO's Game of Thrones and the BBC's The Musketeers, creative textile studio Pinaki Studios is launching Pinaki Editions, a range of luxury fashion accessories for men and women.

Featuring a beautiful crystalline latticework print in rich graphite greys, the Aragonite collection includes scarves and ties, hats, shoes and bags.

Aragonite is a mineral that most commonly appears in shells. This print has been made using a series of accomplished techniques, including distressing, manipulation and digital printing, to replicate aragonite's intricate crystal structure. The resulting print creates a wonderful trompe l'oeil illusion of pleats. Pieces in the collection take on a three-dimensional depth that enhances the natural drape and fold of the fabric. Applied to silk scarves and ties, hats by Karen Henriksen, Winker resort shoes and a tote bag, the Aragonite range offers a smart, versatile collection of timeless staples for your wardrobe.
