

The Friends of Aztalan State Park
2017 Public Events Calendar

[Updated July 18, 2017]

June-Sept Free Public Tour Every Sunday at 2:00pm Weather Permitting

- Jan 28, 5pm Annual Meeting, Friends of Aztalan State Park, Johnson Creek, WI.
- Feb 10, 11, 12 Wisconsin Garden Expo, Alliant Energy Center, Madison, WI, Friends of Aztalan booth.
- May 7, 2pm Spring Walking Tour of ancient Aztalan. Archaeologist Robert Birmingham will highlight recent excavations at Aztalan.
- June 16
10am-4pm The Friends of Aztalan State Park will sponsor a Public Day at Aztalan where park visitors can view the current excavations and talk to archaeologists. The Friends will provide tours of the site and the excavations throughout the day.
- June 20, 7:00pm Solstice Event at Aztalan State Park. A program on Aztalan agriculture will precede a viewing of the Summer Solstice sunset from the Southwest Platform Mound. Snacks and beverages will be available at the park shelter.
- July 16, 10:am Aztalan Day. Town of Aztalan Museum and School open. 10:30am tour of the mound site and a program on Increase Lapham at 3pm at the Park. See Event details at aztalanfriends.org.
- August 19 1 pm Native American Day. The Omeyocan Dance Company (Aztec Dancers) will perform a colorful dance program at the Park. See Event details at aztalanfriends.org.
- September 24 Annual van trip to Trempealeau WI Mississippian Mound Site with guided tour by Archaeologist Robert Boszhardt. Lunch along the Mississippi River and a visit to the Perrot State Park Museum. See Trip details at aztalanfriends.org.

Event Updates At
AZTALANFRIENDS.ORG