- c. Upon ratification by the Board all ballots will be destroyed.

By-Law 11– Referenda

11.1. Proclamation of Referenda

- a. The YFS shall give not less than thirty (30) calendar days and not more than sixty (60) calendar days notice of a referendum.
- b. Sufficient notice shall be deemed to have been given by the posting of not less than 30 proclamations on or about York University not less than 8.5"x11" in size, which shall include the following:
  - c. notice of intent to conduct a referendum;
    - i. the tentative date(s) and time(s) of voting for the referendum;
    - ii. the tentative location of the polling booths for the referendum;
- d. The Board may issue a proclamation of referendum, consistent with the policy herein, at any time following a majority vote cast at a regular meeting of The Board.
- e. One or more members of the Union may require The Board to issue a proclamation of referendum, by submitting to The Board a completed petition in the form prescribed by the Union, containing the following:
  - i. a referendum question that complies with clause 2-c.; and
  - ii. The signatures of, and other required information relating to, at least ten percent of all current members of the Union.

- f. At the first meeting of The Board of Directors after receipt of a petition pursuant to clause 1-c, The Board shall appoint members to a Petition Review Committee consisting of three members of The Board who have had no previous involvement with the petition in question and no greater interest in the substantive issues to which it relates than does the Union's membership in general.
- g. Within ten (10) working days after such Board meeting, the Petition Review Committee shall file a report to The Board as to whether the petition complies with clause 1-c. and was compiled in a fair and reasonable manner.
- h. Upon receiving the report from the Petition Review Committee approving the petition, The Board shall cause the referendum to be conducted as provided herein.

11.2. Referenda Question

- a. Before issuing the proclamation, The Board of Directors shall approve the referendum question in accordance with 2-c.
- b. Subject to 2-c., the proposed question for a referendum shall be submitted to The Board of Directors, which may approve the question in the form submitted, amend the question and approve it as amended, or reject the question.
- c. A referendum question shall be positively worded, so that a vote of "yes" signifies agreement with the initiative proposed, and a vote of "no" signifies disagreement with it.

11.3. Referendum Committee

- a. The Board or its designate shall appoint a Chief Returning Officer and a Referendum Committee, who shall exercise and perform the duties specified herein and in the Union's by-laws.
- b. The term of office of the Chief Returning Officer and Referendum Committee shall expire upon the completion of such duties.
- c. As soon as possible after the issuance of a proclamation, the Referendum Committee shall:
  - i. inform the membership, by such means as the Referendum Committee considers appropriate, of the referendum question, the date(s) and time(s) of voting for the referendum, the location(s) of the polling booths and the general manner in which the referendum will be conducted; and
  - ii. appoint one deputy returning officer and one poll clerk for each poll declared in due course by the Referendum Committee in accordance with clause 3-c-i.
- d. If a member of the Referendum Committee dies, resigns in writing to, or is removed by the Board or individual authorised to make appointments to that officer's position, the Board or individual, as the case may be, shall appoint another individual to that position.
- e. The Chief Returning Officer and the Referendum Committee shall:
  - i. exercise general direction and supervision over the administrative conduct of the referendum and enforce compliance with this policy and the pertinent provisions of the Union's by-laws;
  - ii. issue such instructions as may be necessary to ensure effective execution of the provisions of this policy and the pertinent provisions of the Union's by-laws; and
  - iii. exercise all other powers and perform all other duties assigned to their respective offices by this policy and the Union's by-laws.
- f. The Chief Returning Officer may authorise any member of the Referendum Committee to exercise any of the powers and perform any of the duties assigned to the Chief Returning Officer by this policy or the Union's by-laws.

11.4. Advocating Committees

- a. If requested, the Referendum Committee shall register one committee authorised to promote the “yes” answer to a referendum question, and one committee authorised to promote the “no” answer, provided that the members of each committee shall be members of the Union unless otherwise agreed by the Referendum Committee.
- b. In order to participate in the referendum campaign, individuals must familiarise themselves with the referendum rules as outlined in this and any other relevant policies. Any person who wishes to campaign in the referendum may request and shall receive an orientation to the referendum policies by the members of the Referendum Committee.
- c. An advocating committee may apply for registration by filing with the Referendum Committee, at any time during the referendum period, an application signed by the chief agent of the advocating committee setting out:
  - i. the full name of the committee;
  - ii. the name, address, email address and telephone number of the chief agent of the committee; and
  - iii. the name, address, telephone number and title of each member of the committee.
- d. Each advocating committee shall:
  - i. ensure that all campaigners are aware of and understand all relevant Bylaws, referendum policies and rulings of the Referendum Committee;
  - ii. ensure that all campaigners comply with all relevant Bylaws, referendum policies and rulings of the Referendum Committee.
- e. The Referendum Committee shall determine the resources to be made available to each advocating committee in a particular referendum, and the Referendum Committee shall administer those resources in a fair and reasonable manner at the request of each such committee.
No advocating committee shall invest resources in any aspect of a particular referendum other than those allocated to it by the Referendum Committee.
- f. The Referendum Committee shall maintain a registry of registered advocating committees.
- g. Where the position of chief agent of a registered advocating committee or of an advocating committee that has applied for registration becomes vacant or the chief agent is unable to perform the duties of the position, the committee shall forthwith appoint a new chief agent and inform the Referendum Committee in writing of the name, address and telephone number of the new chief agent.
- h. No one other than a registered advocating committee shall advertise in any medium, or post or distribute any material, for the purpose of supporting or opposing a referendum question.
- i. Advocating committees shall provide the Referendum Committee with a written description of the proposed campaign material. The Referendum Committee shall provide in confidence a written approval or refusal of campaign materials, and shall respond within either 12 hours or 4 working hours of receiving a completed request, whichever is greater.
- j. The Referendum Committee will not approve materials that are defamatory, potentially libelous or factually incorrect. Materials that have not received Committee approval cannot be distributed.
- k. The Referendum Committee will not approve materials that: cannot be removed at the conclusion of the campaign; materials that are likely to damage property including stickers and paint applied to building surfaces; or cannot be monitored for compliance with all relevant Bylaws and referendum policies.
- l. No registered advocating committee shall advertise in any medium, or post or distribute any material, unless the advertisement or other material:
  - i. identifies that committee and indicates that the advertisement is authorized by it; and
  - ii. has the documented, prior authorisation of the Referendum Committee.

- m. Where the Referendum Committee determines that campaign materials which have not been approved by the Referendum Committee are being distributed, displayed or used by a campaign, then the Committee shall order the materials immediately withdrawn or removed and shall confiscate the materials from the campaign for a period of not less than 24 hours.
The Referendum Committee may assign an additional penalty, which may include destruction of the material or a restriction on campaigning provided that the penalty is balanced against the volume of the materials distributed or its effect, and that no destruction shall take place until the appeal period is expired.
- n. No one, whether a member of a registered campaign committee or otherwise, shall disseminate information verbally, electronically or otherwise that is defamatory, potentially libelous or factually incorrect. Campaigners shall act reasonably, responsibly and in good faith.
Further, no one, whether a member of a registered advocating committee or otherwise, shall:
  - i. make any statement of fact either in support of or opposition to a referendum question, without evidence substantiating that statement of fact to the satisfaction of the Referendum Committee; or
  - ii. discuss any aspect of the referendum in a manner that the Referendum Committee considers to constitute harassment.
- o. During the referendum period, the Referendum Committee may, at its discretion, arrange public forums for the advocating committees to make oral presentations to the membership.
- p. No person shall, for the purpose of supporting or opposing a referendum question, violate any pertinent regulations contained in the Union's by-laws or this or any other policy issued pursuant thereto.

11.5. Polling Procedure

Each member of the Union shall be allowed to cast one (1) secret, nontransferable ballot.

- b. The Referendum Committee shall establish and maintain a register of members of the Union, to be known as the register of electors.
- c. Each polling station shall contain either one or two voting compartments so arranged that each elector may be screened from observation and may mark a ballot without interference or interruption.
- d. In each voting compartment, there shall be a table or desk, and a suitable writing instrument.
- e. At the time set for opening a poll, one agent for each registered advocating committee may inspect each ballot box to ensure that it has not been tampered with.
- f. The deputy returning officer shall ensure that no elector is impeded or molested at or about the polling station.
- g. The deputy returning officer and poll clerk at each poll shall initial the back of each ballot before it is given to an elector.
- h. Each elector shall produce the elector's student card or other conclusive identification, whereupon the poll clerk shall strike the elector's name off the register of electors and give the elector a ballot paper bearing the deputy returning officer and poll clerk's initials on the back in accordance with clause 11.5-g.
- i. After receiving a ballot, an elector shall proceed directly to the voting compartment, mark the ballot to clearly indicate the elector's choice opposite the word "yes" or "no", fold the ballot so that the initials on the back are visible without unfolding it, and place it in the ballot box.
- j. Poll clerks shall under no circumstances instruct an elector how to vote or provide information about the referendum other than the referendum question.

11.6. Security of ballot boxes

- a. All ballot boxes and ballots shall be secured in a location approved the Referendum Committee.
- b. The ballot boxes shall be sealed and not opened until counting.

11.7. Counting of Votes

- a. Immediately after the close of a poll, in the presence and full view such of the agents of registered advocating committees or witnesses who are present, the deputy returning officer and poll clerk shall cause all ballot boxes to be transported to the location prescribed by the Referendum Committee for the counting of ballots.
- b. Advocating committees shall each appoint two scrutineers to observe the counting procedure, provided that once the scrutineers have entered the count room, they may not leave the facility until completion of counting or with the consent of the Referendum Committee.
- c. As soon as reasonably possible after all ballot boxes have been transported to the location prescribed for the counting of ballots, in the presence and full view of all Referendum Committee members and the scrutineers, the Referendum Committee shall, with respect to each polling station and in the following order:
  - d. count the number of names stricken from the register of electors, and make an entry on the line immediately below the name of the last elector on the list that states, "The number of electors who voted at this referendum in this polling station is (stating the number)", and sign the list;
    - i. open the ballot box and empty its contents on a table; and
    - ii. count the number of votes cast for the "yes" answer and those cast for the "no" answer to the referendum question, as well as the number of spoiled ballots, on one of the tally sheets supplied, giving full opportunity to those present to examine each ballot paper.
  - e. In counting the votes, the Referendum Committee shall declare spoiled all ballot papers:
    - i. that have not been supplied by the Referendum Committee;
    - ii. that have not been marked with any answer to the referendum question;
    - iii. on which more than one answer to a referendum question has been marked;
    - iv. on which there is any writing or mark by which the elector could be identified.
  - f. Spoiled ballots shall count towards the establishment of total voter participation but will not be considered in the calculation of a majority.
  - g. Forthwith after the official addition of the votes, the Referendum Committee shall prepare a written statement showing the total number of votes cast for each of the "yes" answer and the "no" answer to each referendum question and the number of spoiled ballots. The Referendum Committee shall, at least two (2) business days but not more than five (5) business days after all polls have closed, submit that statement to the board.
  - h. Upon receiving the Referendum Committee's statement showing the votes cast in a referendum, the Board shall by resolution ratify the result of the referendum.
  - i. Before the close of polling on the last day of voting, the chief agent of each registered advocating committee shall file with the Referendum Committee a true return, signed by the chief agent, showing all referendum expenses incurred by the committee for which the committee wishes to be reimbursed.
  - j. The Referendum Committee shall retain all documents submitted in connection with a referendum for at least two (2) months after submitting the statement provided for in clause 11.6-g.
    - a. Quorum is only required for a referendum concerning an external organization where quorum shall be no less than ten percent (10%) of the general membership.

11.8. Grievance Procedure

- a. All alleged violations of the Bylaws, policy or referendum rules shall be investigated and ruled upon by the Referendum Committee.
- b. The complaint must include the following:
  - i. the specific Bylaw or referendum policy that is alleged to have been violated;
  - ii. the specific campaign or individual that is alleged to be in violation;
  - iii. the specific facts which constitute the alleged violation;
  - iv. the evidence of these facts; and
  - v. the name and contact information including e-mail address and telephone number for the complainant.
- c. No complaint will be considered by the Referendum Committee unless it is in writing and is received within 24-hours of the alleged violation.
- d. Where a complaint is received and found to be complete, the Referendum Committee shall investigate the facts, and shall rule on the complaint within 24-hours thereof.
- e. Where a violation has occurred, regardless of cause or intent of the parties involved, and that violation has provided an unfair advantage to a campaign, the Referendum Committee shall assign a penalty that:
  - i. fully counterbalances any unfair advantage gained;
  - ii. penalises the campaign for committing a violation; and
  - iii. is of the same type or character as the advantage which was gained.
- f. Penalties available to the Referendum Committee include but are not limited to:
  - i. the confiscation or destruction of campaign materials;
  - ii. limits, restrictions and prohibitions on any type of campaigning, for any period of time; and
  - iii. disqualification.
