We’d give to everyone if we could, but we’ve chosen to focus on areas that tie into our mission and our passions. Grassburger’s focus for giving is:
1. Sustainable Agriculture and practices, as well as Humane Animal Welfare and 2. Community groups promoting good health, fitness and nutrition.
Sponsorship requests are considered case by case.

Name of organization ____________________________________________

Tax exempt number, if applicable __________________________________

Address _______________________________________________________

Website _______________________________________________________

Contact person ____________________________ Phone (___) _________

Email _________________________________________________________

What are you requesting? _______________________________________

How does your organization align with our Community Values listed above? ______________________________

________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________

O Pick up in store  O Mail  Date needed: ____________________________

Please email completed form to jess@eatgb.com.