Frequently Asked Questions

How many weddings and special events take place at Brecknock Hall each day?

Brecknock Hall typically hosts only one wedding or event per weekend.

Clients have exclusive use of the building during their event.

What is included in the Site Fee cost?

Our fee includes exclusive use of our venue, twenty 60" rounds tables, 175 white Chiavari chairs, 10 cocktail tables, security, housekeeping, and day long use of Bridal & Grooms suites.

Brecknock Hall is a not-for-profit organization. Does this mean the rental fee is tax deductible?

The rental fee is not tax deductible.

Do you provide catering?

Brecknock Hall does not provide catering. Clients may select from our list of approved, licensed & insured caterers.

Do I have to use specific vendors?

With the exception of caterers, clients are permitted to hire their own vendors, provided that they are properly licensed and insured. We can provide a recommended list of vendors for suggestions.

How many people can Brecknock accommodate?

Brecknock can comfortably accommodate 80 guests for an all-indoor event with a seated dinner. For less formal cocktail parties, about 125 guests can be accommodated. For larger groups of up to 200, cocktail hour is held indoors with a tented reception on our back patio. We have a recommended list of tent companies, or you may choose your own.

Do you host weddings and events year round?

Yes, Brecknock is available for rental January through December.
