

ART HYPE: MINT + SERF, PAPERWORKNYC @ MAMA GALLERY

February 4, 2015

We've been smitten with the newness of DTLA's MAMA Gallery and the damn good art on its walls as of late—the "Erection" exhibit made us go bananas when we caught a view. The gallery strums up another hit, with hype west coast—east coast vibes all up in it. This past Saturday, over 1,000 peeps from both coasts came out for the opening of LOVE//WAR curated by Mint+Serf and PaperworkNYC in a celebratory (packed!) evening to kick off the week-long group exhibit. The show is a multimedia exhibition examining the inevitability of uncertainty and conflict, including established, world-renowned artists such as Estevan Oriol, Peter Sutherland, Boogie, Pryce Lee, Norman Reedus, and Ed Templeton as well as some great emerging talent.
