

HYPERALLERGIC

Sensitive to Art & its Discontents

ArtRx LA

by Matt Stromberg on September 15, 2015

Cerebral Vortex

When: Opens Saturday, September 19, 7–9pm

Where: MAMA Gallery (1242 Palmetto Street, Downtown, Los Angeles)

This Saturday, MAMA opens Cerebral Vortex, a multi-sensory, consciousness-expanding group show. Angeline Rivas creates an immersive installation based on her detailed ballpoint ink drawings, while Galen Pehrson's hand-drawn animation peeks out from a hole in the wall. Double Diamond Sun Body's video work will inject some absurdity into the mix, while polymath James Franco will be on a pay phone talking about his mind. On opening night, composer Jonathan Bepler, who has collaborated with artist Matthew Barney, will present a reinterpreted scene from Barney's recent epic film The River of Fundament (on view now at MOCA).