DAY ONE SERVICES

Day One is the only organization in New York City solely devoted to the issue of dating violence. Working alongside youth, Day One educates, organizes and advocates on behalf of young people 24 years of age and under who are at risk of or experiencing intimate partner violence.

Day One assists young survivors of intimate partner violence in the five boroughs of New York City by providing the following services:

Community Education
- Interactive workshops for young people in K-12th grade and college that address the warning signs of abuse, dynamics of power and control, different types of abuse and helping a friend
- Professional trainings for adults who work with youth addressing the fundamentals of teen dating violence

Direct Services
- Legal advice, information and full representation for youth seeking orders of protection, custody/visitation, child support and/or domestic violence-based immigration help
- Individual and group counseling and case management services
- Advocacy and support navigating the criminal court system with the goal of obtaining an order of protection
- Advocacy in an educational setting, such as assistance in obtaining a school safety transfer

Technical Assistance
- Technical assistance for schools that want to create or edit policies and procedures related to dating violence

Youth Voices Network
- Advocacy group for young survivors of dating violence who work on outreach and awareness projects

Peer Leadership
- Training in leadership development, advocacy and organizing

All direct services are available in English and Spanish, and legal services are available in French as well.
