The St. James' Weekly News
The Third Sunday after Pentecost
June 25, 2017

*"Since, Lord, thou dost defend us with thy Spirit,
we know we at the end shall life inherit.
Then fancies flee away; I'll fear not what men say,
I'll labor night and day to be a pilgrim."*

[Hymn #565, v. 3]

WELCOME

A warm welcome to all and a special welcome to those who are visiting; the addition of your praise and thanks heartens us all. If you are seeking a church home or simply a place to rest for a while on your spiritual journey, we invite you to consider St. James' to be that place. The service leaflet will guide you through the liturgy. In the pew racks you will find the Book of Common Prayer (red binding) and The Hymnal 1982 (blue binding). Please do not hesitate to ask a fellow worshipper for help.

If you are new to St. James' and wish to be included in our weekly e-mails (This Week At St. James'), please fill in one of the welcome forms (available on the table in the narthex) and leave it in the offertory plate or with an usher. Restrooms are located in the undercroft on the right-hand wall. There is an elevator located in the narthex for those who need it. Please do not hesitate to speak to an usher or any church member if you have questions or need assistance. Whether you are a visitor or a parishioner, if you would like a call and/or a visit please call the office at 375-9952 or send an e-mail to stjamesparishoffice@gmail.com. If you have a need for hospital visitation for yourself or for a family member or friend, you must call Fr. Christopher or the Parish Office. The SWVMC, like many hospitals these days, does not inform us of nor do they make available the names of patients being admitted.

TODAY'S HYMNS are listed on the back cover and on the hymn board. Gail Albright is our organist today.

SUMMER LUNCH PROGRAM GREAT SNACK CHALLENGE returns for its 4th season – time to bring in those individually wrapped health snacks choices now. The supply is very low according to the first set of packers. We like to put at least 5 snacks in each bag. Use your imagination. There is a basket next to the table at the back of the pews. The goal is a minimum of 1500 individual snacks from St. James'. Let's beat our own record – We can do this!!! See Marilyn King or Patricia Michael if you need more information. And don't forget to check the SLP Packers' schedule on the bulletin board.

NORMAN'S ATTIC NEWS. Jill Roosma and Nancy Boardman are co-chairing the basket auction and need baskets with different themes, for example, Back to School; Gardening; Vermont Products; Entertaining; Chocolate; Coffee; Baking; Wine; Books. Find lots of other good ideas by searching "basket raffles" or "theme baskets" on the Internet. Let your imaginations fly!!!! Let Jill or Nancy know your theme. August 1 is the deadline for delivery of the baskets to the church. Complete guidelines are posted with the sign-up sheet on the bulletin board in the Undercroft.

It's also time to gather up unused or gently used items for the Recycled Treasures table. Tables are set up in the Undercroft to collect them. No electronics, books, or clothing, please. Be sure that all items are clean and ready for sale. If you have questions, please check with Joanna Taylor or Eileen Rice.
