

CONSENT TO CORRESPOND ELECTRONICALLY

While Jamie Clear takes reasonable precautions to protect your confidential information; e-mail, Skype and texting are not completely secure methods of communication.

I acknowledge that if I use e-mail, text messages or Skype to communicate with Jamie Clear regarding counseling and coaching services, that Jamie Clear has my permission to correspond via that email address and other forms of electronic communication.

I am aware of the limited validity and reliability of telephone, email and other kinds of electronic and mail communication. I am further aware that I am not guaranteed confidentiality when I contact or receive such contacts from my counselor. I understand that the purposes for engaging in telephone, electronic, or mail communication must be limited in scope and time and that the validity and reliability of information given and received is necessarily limited. This consent supplements previous informed consent agreements.

I give permission for Jamie Clear to email me regarding counseling services at:

_____ @ _____

I give permission for Jamie Clear to text me regarding counseling services at:

I give permission for Jamie Clear to skype at the following address for counseling services:

Client Signature

Date

Counselor Signature

Date