

When my landlord decided to sell the building, and sent Sarah Gelbhard to my door to speak with me about my lease, I was very defensive and prepared for the worst.... I soon realized that Sarah was an exceptional individual who SINCERELY had the best interests of ALL as her main concern.

I am a single woman and the only real security I had was my rent stabl^eized (sp?) lease. I was not about to let that go easily. Sarah had such a compassionate attitude, and ~~was~~ so genuinely interested in creating the best possible situation for everybody, that i felt truly blessed.

I assumed that all real estate professionals had one priority: the biggest possible commission. Sarah taught me that there is AT LEAST ONE EXCEPTION to that unpleasant rule. She worked so hard to compensate me for my lease, I will literally ALWAYS BE GRATEFUL TO HER FOR HER SELFLESS INVOLVEMENT AND HER PERSONAL INTEGRITY.

Sarah is more of a Real Estate Priestess than Real Estate Broker. It is quite moving to observe the pains she takes to care for the individuals involved, and the warriorlike tenacity she is capable of, when fighting for what she beleives in.

Ms. Gelbhard exalts the role of Agent to that of an Artist, with a profound understanding of the role that home and environment play in our lives, and a remarkable talent for coordinating people with places.

I know without a doubt that whoever is fortunate enough to work with Sarah Gelbhard, either buying or selling a property, has done something VERY RIGHT in their lives !

THANK YOU, SARAH !!
