

Creative, passionate, and innovative knitwear designer with an international, well rounded background in fully fashioning, tailoring and project management is looking for a challenging position within the world of fashion.

Education

Academy of Art University, San Francisco, CA Bachelor of Fine Arts in Knitwear Design Anticipated Graduation Date: May 2014	2011 – present
City College, San Francisco, CA Fashion Design	2010 – 2011
Bavarian Academy of Marketing and Communication, Munich, Germany Bachelor in Communications	2003 – 2004
School for Master Craftspeople, Munich, Germany Women’s Tailor Apprenticeship	1999 – 2002

Professional Experience

Kika Hewel, San Francisco, CA Founder and Lead Designer Design and creation of the upcycling label “kika hewel”	2010 – present
Steinmüller GmbH & Co. KG, Tutzing, Germany Brand & Product Manager Brand development and lead designer of custom-made professional attire Key account management and customer consultation	2007 – 2009
PACT Marketing GmbH & Co. KG, Munich, Germany Junior Project Manager Managed end-to-end promotional events for major national brands	2003 - 2004 2005 – 2007
Luisa Beccaria, Milan, Italy Production Assistant Managed the supply chain and conducted quality management Created technical drawings and prepared fall/winter 2005 collection for Milan Fashion Week	2004 – 2005

Skills

Technical	Art	Professional	Computer	Languages
Knitwear	Fashion Illustration	Custom Tailoring	Adobe Suite	German
Stoll/Dubied	Figure Drawing	Project Management	Gerber	English
Draping/Flat Pattern	Guache	Brand Development	Microsoft Office	French
Construction	Marker	Product Management	FileMaker Pro	Italian
Fashion Design	Charcoal	Customer Consultation	MAC/PC	Spanish

Awards

Winner of the Presidential Scholarship to the Academy of Art at CCSF Fashion Show	2011
Honored for outstanding school work at the School for Master Craftspeople	2002