

Where world-class music comes alive

Save the Dates

2018-2019 Season

Sunday, September 30, 2018, 3:00 pm: CANELLAKIS-BROWN DUO

A cello-piano program of Transatlantic Inspirations, featuring old and new world masters, from Chopin to Grieg to Gershwin

Saturday, October 27, 2018, 7:00 pm: NATHAN LEE, piano

With a pianistic prowess that belies his youth, Young Concert Artists Competition winner Lee presents a program of Scarlatti, Beethoven, Schumann and Ravel

Saturday, December 1, 2018, 7:00 pm: REBEL Ensemble for Baroque Music

Bringing the baroque repertoire vibrantly to life on period instruments with its program Irregular Pearls: Musical Treasures from 17th- and 18th-Century Europe

Saturday, February 2, 2019, 3:00 pm: NIKOLAI LUGANSKY, piano

"Sensational in every respect...a pianist who has absolute intellectual control, staggering technical ability, delicate poeticism and a piratical spirit all in magical harmony." (The Herald)

Saturday, February 23, 2019, 7:00 pm: DORIC STRING QUARTET

Hailed as the leading British string quartet of its generation, performing Haydn, Britten and Mendelssohn

Sunday, March 31, 2019, 3:00 pm: ITALIAN SAXOPHONE QUARTET

La Dolce Vita program including music by Italian cinema masters Rota, Morricconi and Piovani
"originality of its instrumentation...unquestionable quality of its performance." (Il Messaggero, Rome)

Saturday, April 13, 2019, 7:00 pm, Linehan Concert Hall, UMBC:

ECCO Chamber Orchestra

An Ancient Walkabout through the glories of early music (Purcell, Bach) and its more modern echoes (Britten, Andean connections)

Saturday, May 11, 2019, 7:00 pm:

ESCHER STRING QUARTET with CHRISTOPHER SHIH, piano

Masterworks by composers with links to the Czech heartland—Dvorak, Korngold, Mozart—from an ensemble that "holds the listener spellbound from first bar to last." (BBC Music Magazine)

Except where noted for ECCO, all concerts are at the Smith Theater, Howard Community College