ARTIST'S STATEMENT

Geometric Abstraction and Kinetic Art influence my works. Through them I want to express change, possibility and potential. I create sculptures that can be disassembled and rearranged and paintings on Plexiglas that vary depending on the lighting in the room and the angle of the viewer. Because they change, they can represent a passing moment, the potential of a brighter future. My focus is the shadow that the piece casts around it, a new reflection of color or a pattern of lines and shapes that surprise the viewer. By exploring these intersections of movement, color and light, narratives related to the energy of new beginnings and the passing of current realities are revealed.
